

We are hiring Junior Executive Program (JEP)

Our “JUNIOR EXECUTIVE PROGRAM” (JEP) gives entry-level graduates an opportunity to gain fast-track experience and knowledge required for getting into an executive or senior executive position. We offer experiential learning opportunities, rotations across divisional functions, challenging projects and communication skills.

The incumbents will go through a six (6) months training program which will focus on supporting graduates to explore their full potential in the scope of Supervisory and Technical expertise. This will include both internal and external training courses that will bring maximum benefits to the JEP in order that they become capable leaders for the company.

The 6-month structured program will see successful candidates being rotated within key areas of the business such as Production area, Supply Chain Management, Business Unit and Engineering. Upon successful completion of the program, the candidate will be offered exciting job opportunities based on career aspirations, performance during the program and also based on business needs.
