Communicative English Course

Course Description:

The Communicative English Course is designed to equip participants with basic communication skills to function more professionally at work and more effectively in everyday situations. The course reinforces participants’ knowledge of the forms and functions of the language in a communicative context. It will provide practice for participants in the specific oral skills required in workplace interactions.

Course Content:

- Making and handling enquiries
- Giving suggestions
- Giving and receiving instructions
- Social English
- Making travel arrangements

Duration:

12 sessions (2 hours per session)

Fees:

RM300 per participant

Target Group:

Junior staff and students joining the workforce